Dear Mr Walsh

Re: Trade Descriptions Act 1968

With reference to our investigation concerning allegations made under the above legislation concerning your dog boarding business.

Detailed enquiries have been undertaken and I am now in a position to inform you that there will be no requirement to interview you regarding this matter and we will not be pursuing this matter further.

With regard to the data recovered from your computer, this was recorded on one disc, which has been held in a secure location at the Trading Standards office, with restricted access. Now that the investigation is complete, this disc will be destroyed.

I have also enclosed the paperwork that was seized from you at the time of the warrant.

Yours sincerely

Tracey Blanchard

Dear [REDACTED]

Re: Lucies Farm, Powick, Worcester

With regard to our investigation concerning the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 and the above premises.

May I take this opportunity to thank everyone who took the time to complete and return the questionnaire, the information was extremely useful.

I am now in a position to inform you that our enquiries are complete and we will be taking no further action with regard to this matter and therefore, for those that were concerned, there is absolutely no reason why you should not continue to use the facilities of Lucies Farm.

Please be assured that all data containing personal records will now be destroyed.

Yours sincerely
